So I mentioned tonight's message is called God's wellspring of renewal and restoration. Now Wellspring might be a word that you don't hear very often, but I'm gonna tell you what well. a Wellspring is a Wellspring is a main source of water that provides water to secondary streams and rivers. maybe. Better way to define it is to say it's a source of continual supply, so a Wellspring is a source of continual supply.

As places of dense habitation, cities have always required coordination and planning. City planning has involved the design and construction of large-scale infrastructure projects to provide basic necessities such as a water supply and drainage. By the 1850s, immigration and industrialization were fueling the rise of big cities, creating immense, collective problems of epidemics, slums ...
